VINCENZO RUFFO (1520-1587) Although known more as a composer of madrigals, Ruffo produced three books of masses and three books of motets, Magnificats and Psalms. He was conscious of the decrees of the Council of Trent and attempted to write in conformity to these. The words paraphrase the antiphon and hymn sung on Good Friday in the Tridentine liturgy. Translation: "We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your holy cross and Passion you have redeemed the world."
