Die Nachtigall
(The Nightingale)
Franz Schubert

Text: Johann Karl Unger
English: Carl Zgutowski

Allegretto

T.1

From where Philomela had waited so long, Arose through the

T.2

From where Philomela had waited so long, Arose through the

B.1

From where Philomela had waited so long, Arose through the

B.2

From where Philomela had waited so long, Arose through the

Pf.

Allegretto

me - le den Zau - ber - ge - sang, im me - le den Zau - ber - ge - sang, had

me - le den Zau - ber - ge - sang, had

me - le den Zau - ber - ge - sang, had

Pf.
buschicht-en Gang erhob Philomel den Zaubersang. wait-ed so long, a-rose through the stillness the magic of song, With schil-dert der Treue be-glü-cken den Lohn in hal-len-den Schlä-gen, im notes ring-ing bright-ly like cym-bal and chime, He sang of re-ward for a

B.1
schil-dert der treue be-glü-cken den Lohn in hal-len-den Schlä-gen, im
notes ring-ing bright-ly like cym-bal and chime, He sang of re-ward for a

B.2
schil-dert der treue be-glü-cken den Lohn in hal-len-den Schlä-gen, im
notes ring-ing bright-ly like cym-bal and chime, He sang of re-ward for a

Pf.